

Strategies for Success with English Learners

Date: May 5 & 6, 2010
Times: 8:30 a.m. Registration
9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. Workshop hours
Cost: FREE to East Central and West Central ESC LEP Consortium members (Includes ASCD DVD on topic)
$150 Non-consortium members
Audience: K-12 teachers and administrators, Curriculum directors, Title I staff
Site: Indianapolis
Deadline: April 14, 2010

Participants will learn new strategies for simultaneously increasing the English language proficiency and academic achievement of English language learners. They will explore ways that mainstream and ESL teachers can work seamlessly together to make this happen.

Specific content includes 1) time-honored ESL strategies to use with beginning English learners in all classes; 2) strategies for increasing English learners' vocabulary usage, reading comprehension and writing engagement; 3) strategies for differentiating instruction in mainstream content-area classes; and 4) understanding how to utilize standards-based and assessment-driven planning to sustain excellence and build equity into the instructional process.

Presenter Dr. Virginia Rojas is an ASCD faculty member and independent consultant. She works with American International schools throughout the world as well as with school districts in the US and Canada. She is recognized for her leadership and her commitment to the development of second language proficiency among school populations, especially within an inclusionary and collaborative context.
